George Boehler Hangs Up His 38th Victory of Season When He Takes Opener From Indians

Victorious Oilers Return to Form in Final Series of 1922 Season

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 23.—With George Boehler, new king of Western hurling, growing better as the game progressed, Tulsa had little trouble in defeating Oklahoma City today 11 to 2.

The Tulsa hurling ace started showing his stuff from the first ball pitched and was never in danger during the season.

The 1922 champions found their stride after losing four straight games in the first series.

Just when the Tulsa skipper will send in to hurl today is rather problematical just now.

Laughlin and Black are all ready to go the route.

LINCOLN HOPES TO GET BERTH IN WESTERN LEAGUE

Fans Adopt Sioux City Team—Many Turn Out for Last Games

By R. E. JOHNSON, Special Correspondent for the Tulsa Daily World.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 23.—Lincoln is a lively prospect for a berth in the Western league next year if there is a franchise hanging loose somewhere, it is in danger of being swiped and moved to Nebraska.

The Sioux City franchise is just concluding a series of games here, transferred to Lincoln from Iowa's "big little city" up the river.

The Sioux fans evidently were attracted malaria this summer or hung up a quarantine card on their ball park.

Anyhow, through lack of patronage the Sioux City franchise was made available.

The balance of its home games to Lincoln, beginning on September 25.

Since then the Denver, Des Moines and Omaha fans have manifested in Landis field, our new ball park, and given Lincoln the once-over as a Western league prospect.

I understand the visiting managers are making a study of the situation.

It is agreed that the series played here this month, can be a fair test of Lincoln's willingness to support a Western league team next year.

The tag end of the season is usually without pep to draw a satisfactory crowd.

But again the fact that the "Lincoln" label across their shirts is playing on our lot do not wear the "Lincoln" label across their shirts is also a figure in the clicking of the turnstile.

Lincoln is Candidate.

Finally, the teams matched with the exception of our ancient brother rival from Omaha, have been far from successful in their efforts to give them much attention.

Notwithstanding these things the attendance has been quite satisfactory.

Lincoln is undoubtedly a candidate for a berth in the Western league.

Whether the entry is at the expense of Sioux City or some other city in the Western loop remains to be seen.
